“I didn’t know about any of this.
This class and the volunteers,
they’re helping me so much.”

– Ashunti, junior, Riverside High School

MONEY SENSE

This program provides teens with financial fundamentals around budgeting, banking, credit and loans. Volunteers from the business community lead Money Sense lessons and educators offer precious class time. Your support helps to bring Money Sense to more students at a wider range of schools and sites in Wisconsin and Illinois.

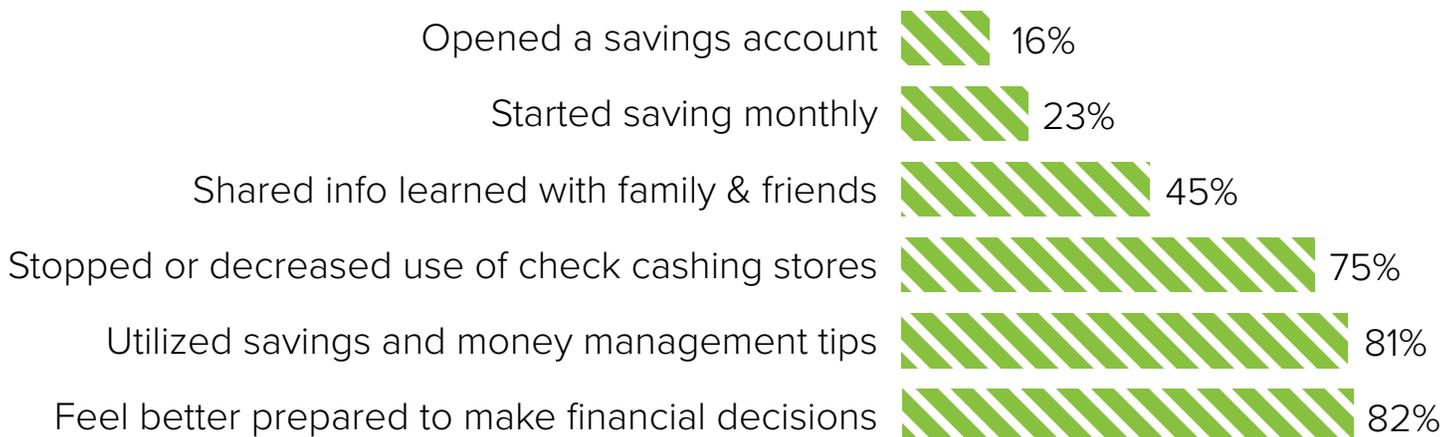

“These lessons and volunteers provide students with confidence and a feeling that the community supports them. I’m grateful to have Money Sense at our school.”

– Greg Ogunbowale, principal, JMAC

2016-2017 MONEY SENSE OUTCOMES

7,953 STUDENTS

107 SCHOOLS

MONEY COACH

This exclusive, hands-on program builds off core financial concepts to prepare teens for college, careers and living independently. Volunteers become mentors to teens during months of meetings in small groups and one-on-one. Your support expands this one-of-a-kind program and even provides scholarships for at-risk students.

“I think this is so important for kids in this age range. They really need to have a background in money to be able to go out on their own in the world.”

– Joyce Stoner, volunteer and paralegal

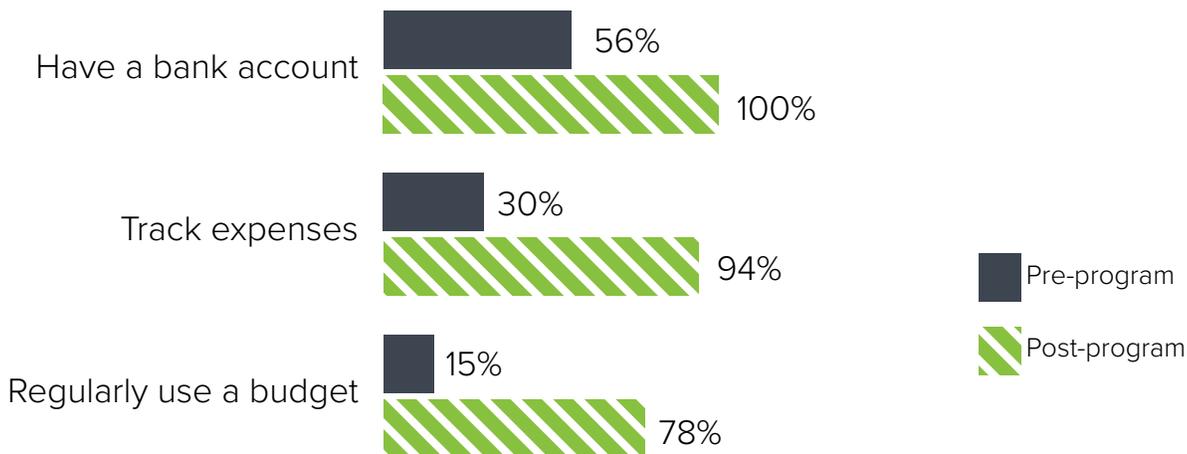

2016-2017 MONEY COACH OUTCOMES

46 VOLUNTEER MONEY COACHES

143 AT-RISK TEENS

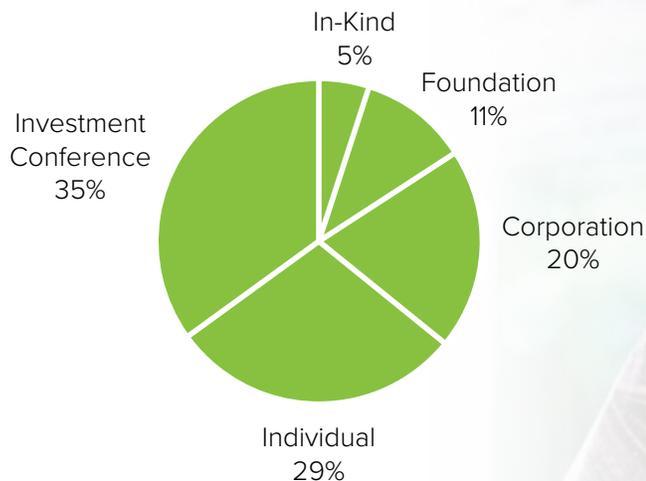

14 SITE PARTNERS IN SOUTHEASTERN WISCONSIN

SCHOLARSHIPS EARNED: $37,105

(Of 380 students surveyed 2013-2017.)
